WRONGDOING

ADOPTED: January 16, 2001

REVISED:

517.1 INVESTIGATION OF SUSPECTED EMPLOYEE WRONGDOING
1. Purpose	It is occasionally necessary to investigate suspected employee wrongdoing relating to the employee's professional capacity. A practical option is to retain the services of a private investigator.
2. Authority	Due to the nature of the investigation, confidentiality is necessary. Therefore, the Board authorizes the district solicitor to retain the services of a private investigator to investigate employee wrongdoing upon recommendation by both the Superintendent and Board President.
